

Electricity Generation December 2021

December was the third month in 2021 where wind energy surpassed gas as the primary source of electricity generation.

Gas generation peaked at 66% with a low of 10%. Wind generation due to its intermittency varied between 75% and 2%. Coal was as high as 27% and also as low as 4%.

