Networks
Ireland

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Gas Networks Ireland operates and maintains Ireland's €3bn, 14,725km national gas network—one of the safest and most modern in the world. Trusted by nearly 725,000 homes and businesses, their network delivers over 30% of Ireland's total energy, including 40% of heating and nearly 50% of electricity generation.

They are on an exciting journey to repurpose their infrastructure to transport 100% renewable gases—in particular biomethane and green hydrogen—supporting Ireland's climate targets and energy security.

The organisation is seeking an authentic and strategic Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to lead the organisation through a once-in-a-generation transformation—delivering a fully decarbonised, renewable-ready gas network.

Reporting to the Board, the CEO will also ensure safe, efficient, and reliable operations across all business functions, champion innovation, sustainability, and stakeholder collaboration and inspire a high-performing, inclusive, and future-focused workforce.

Key Responsibilities:

- Set and execute long-term strategic goals aligned with national and European energy policy.
- Lead organisational transformation while maintaining operational excellence.
- Build strong relationships with shareholders, government, regulators, and industry partners.
- Oversee governance, risk, financial performance, and regulatory compliance.
- Foster a culture of integrity, inclusion, and continuous improvement.

Gas Networks Ireland invites applications from Candidates who have:

- Proven senior leadership in a complex, customer-focused organisation.
- Strong commercial, financial, and operational acumen.
- Demonstrated success in leading transformation and cultural change.
- Exceptional communication and stakeholder engagement skills.
- MBA or equivalent qualification desirable.
- Experience in energy, infrastructure, or regulated environments would be an advantage.

Odgers have been exclusively retained by Gas Networks Ireland to manage the appointment process.
Closing date: 12noon, Friday 24th October 2025.
